You are liable for all such charges once the Card has been delivered to you or your Cardholder. 13.1 Upon the expiry of the validity period of the Card or sooner, we may issue you a new replacement Card, without assigning any reason whatsoever. For security reasons, any new replacement Card(s) dispatched to you is not active. To use the Card at any card terminals, ATMs or any other point-of-sale (POS) at which the Card is used, you must first activate your new replacement Card and create a PIN (if required) via interactive voice response (IVR) channel, secured online channels or any other secured channels specified by us.

13.2 Even if you do not activate your Card, you are still responsible for paying all outstanding balances. For the avoidance of doubt, unless otherwise informed by us, non-activation of your new replacement Card does not revoke any existing standing instructions or any other transactions (including transactions which have been performed but not posted) unless the Card or Card Account has been terminated by you pursuant to Clause 27 below. Notwithstanding, you will still be liable for any transaction on your Card due to your previous use or standing instructions. It is your responsibility to ensure that no further transactions are made on a terminated Card.

- 13.3 Upon replacement of damaged Card, early renewal of expiring Card and upgrading of existing Card, you are under a duty to use all reasonable care, precaution and diligence to prevent the loss, theft or unauthorised use of your unexpired old Card. All charges arising from transactions carried out through the use of your Card when it has been carelessly disposed are deemed to have been made by you and you are liable for all such transactions.

 - (ii) using his Card at any of our ATM or the ATM of any other bank or financial institution with whom we have an arrangement(s) for the use of the ATM of the said bank or financial institution (in which case the amount of each advance will be further subject to the applicable daily withdrawal limit imposed by such other bank or financial institution).
- 14.2 For all inter-country transactions via ATM and/or any member institution of VISA, the exchange rates (if applicable) will be the prevailing exchange rates as determined by us, as we reasonably deem fit which determination will be in accordance with Section 15 below on “Conversion for Overseas transactions”. All such transactions must not violate the laws existing in the country where such transactions are effected.
- 14.3 The Cardholder’s use of his Card to obtain a cash advance is deemed to constitute your agreement to pay interest on each cash advance and cash advance fee as we may prescribe. Interest accrues on each cash advance from the transaction date until repayment in full at the current rate of 1.5% per month (or 18% per annum) or such other rate as we may prescribe. A fee is also imposed on the amount of each cash advance and charged to the Sub-Account and the Card Account. For the applicable Cash Advance fee, please visit www.citibank.com.my (which may be revised from time to time with adequate prior written notice to you).

- 14.4 For the avoidance of any doubt, in addition to cash advance fee, we will levy finance charges at the applicable rate on cash advance withdrawals made by you as we deem fit until all outstanding balances in your Card Account have been settled. - 15.2 The currency conversion will be based on Citibank's prevailing foreign exchange rate and/or an exchange rate determined by the relevant Payment Network. The conversion rate is subject to administration charges levied by the Payment Network and in addition, a foreign exchange conversion markup will be levied by Citibank on the converted Ringgit Malaysia amount, or such other rate as determined by Citibank and notified to you. For details, please visit www.citibank.com.my to view the Fees and Charges table.
- 15.3 Because of the conversion processes and the currency conversion rates used in them:
 - a) the amount that we charge you in the currency of your Card Account, Malaysian Ringgit, will usually be different to the amount that you may have calculated at the time you initiated the transaction; and
 - b) if you receive a refund of a foreign currency transaction, the amount of that refund (which will be in Malaysian Ringgit) might be different from the amount of the original transaction
- 15.4 You agree that in the event of any disputes on the conversion rates determined by the relevant Payment Network on any transactions made in foreign currency, we will not be responsible to settle such disputes on your behalf.

16.3 To the fullest extent permitted by law, all fees paid to or in connection with the Card to us are non-refundable.

17 Statement of Account

17.1 A statement will not be sent to a Cardholder unless he requests for it, in which case, we are entitled to impose a statement request charge as we may reasonably prescribe and notify you in advance.

17.2 A statement in respect of each Sub-Account and the Card Account will be sent to your last known address in our records and such statement is deemed to have been received by you on the fifth (5th) day after posting. We will normally send a statement to you monthly on the statement date for active accounts, i.e. accounts which show some monetary activities within a continuous period of six (6) months for each account. The statement shows the total balance, any finance charges, fees, charges, the minimum amount due and the payment due date. It also shows amongst others your current Credit Limit and the Shared Limit or the Sub-Limit of each Cardholder, as the case may be, as well as an itemised list of current charges, payments and credits in the Card Account and each Sub-Account.

17.3 Upon receipt of the statement, it is your responsibility to examine all entries in the statement and ensure that the Cardholder examines all entries in respect of his Sub-Account and as stated in the statement. You must inform us in writing of any error, discrepancies or inaccuracies in the statement within fourteen (14) days from the date you receive or are deemed to have received the statement.

17.4 Unless we receive a written notification from you within fourteen (14) days of any error in the statement, you are deemed to have accepted the entries in the statement made up to the date of the last entry in the statement and such entries will be conclusive evidence of your liability in respect of the amounts stated therein, save where there is fraud or manifest error (for example fraudulent or wrong entries). For the avoidance of doubt, this provision only applies to you without affecting our rights to make good, correct or recover any monies mistakenly credited into the Card Account (whether by a third party or for the use of Citibank) for which you will be liable to pay over to us.

Unless you notify us in the matter stated above, the statement will be considered conclusive and binding as against you and your legal representatives and successors.

17.5 For the avoidance of doubt, proof of sending a written notification to us is not proof that we have received your written notification if we have in fact not received it. Subject to the requirements of applicable law, you should obtain acknowledgement of our receipt of your written notification.

17.6 If you dispute any transactions stated in the statement, we may as we reasonably deem fit, carry out any investigation(s) on the disputed transaction(s), in which case the following will apply:-

- (i) If our investigation(s) reveal or indicate that you are liable for any of the disputed transaction(s), we are entitled to levy the following charges:-
 - (a) an investigation(s) charge(s) as we may deem fit to charge based on the cost incurred for such investigation; and
 - (b) finance charge(s) from the date of the disputed transaction(s) until the finalisation of our investigation(s).

- (ii) No finance charge(s) and/or investigation charge(s) will be levied in the event that the investigation(s) reveal that you are not liable for any of the disputed transaction(s).

Our findings in any investigation conducted in relation to the Card Account are conclusive, final and binding on you save where there is fraud or manifest error.

For the avoidance of doubt, you may contact the Ombudsman for Financial Services should you wish to continue pursuing a claim on a disputed transaction.

18 How We Determine the Balance

The outstanding balance appears as the Current Balance on the statement. To determine the Current Balance, we begin with the outstanding balance on the Card Account at the beginning of each billing period, called the “Previous Balance” on the billing statement. We add any purchases or cash advances and subtract any credits or payments credited as of that billing period. We then add the appropriate finance charges and fees and make the applicable adjustments. Subject to you paying as a minimum, the Specific Minimum Payment (as defined below), payments should be made not later than the payment due date specified in your monthly statement (“Payment Due Date”).

19 Finance Charge

- 19.1 Finance charges are at the rates prescribed by Bank Negara Malaysia under its guidelines (or such other rate that may be lower as determined by us at our discretion and as we deem fit).

	Cardholders who promptly settle their Minimum Monthly Payment due for ten (10)/ eleven (11) months in the last twelve (12) consecutive months.	17% p.a.
	Cardholders who make nine (9) months or less prompt payments of their Minimum Monthly Payment in the last twelve (12) consecutive months.	18% p.a.

19.2 Finance charges are computed on:

- (i) all transactions charged to you in connection with the use of your Card including retail transactions commencing from the day they are posted except for
 - a) Cash Advance, where finance charges will commence from transactions date;
 - b) Monthly Instalment, where finance charges will commence from one day after Posting Date.
- (ii) the unpaid balance or outstanding balances including Monthly Instalments carried forward from the previous statement or statements, commencing on the respective dates for the computation of finance charges as set out in (i) above.

19.3 Subject to any restriction imposed by Bank Negara Malaysia (including its credit card guidelines, as amended from time to time), the Finance Charges may be imposed on the portion of balances that relates to finance charges and other fees or charges (excluding late payment charge) that we carried forward from balances posted in previous statements.

19.4 No finance charge will be imposed on the full amount shown as due in the statement ("Current Balance") provided that you pay the Current Balance in full not later than the payment due date specified in the statement ("Payment Due Date"). The Interest Free Period from the statement date for new retail transactions and current month's Monthly Instalment(s) is only applicable if you make full payment on the outstanding balance from the previous month's statement of account by the Payment Due Date.

19.5 Upon receipt of the monthly statement, you may choose to pay the Current Balance in full or if you choose not to settle the Current Balance in full, you must pay as a minimum, the Specified Minimum Payment on or before the payment due date. "Specified Minimum Payment" means:

- (a)
 - (i) 5% of the total outstanding balance* (if any);
*Outstanding balance refers to retail transactions amount (if any) + Balance Transfer amount (if any) + Cash Advance amount (if any) + Finance Charges and fees (if any)
 - (ii) 100% service tax (if any);
 - (iii) 100% Monthly Instalments (if any); and
 - (iv) 100% past due amount (if any);

OR

(b) RM50; whichever is higher.

If your Current Balance is below RM50, the Specified Minimum Payment will be 100% of your Current Balance.

19.6 You will be obligated to pay us a finance charge if:

- (i) you pay us less than the Current Balance;
- (ii) you make no payment on the Payment Due Date;
- (iii) you make payment after the Payment Due Date; and
- (iv) that you/Cardholder have/has taken out a cash advance

19.7 Finance charges would be at the rate prescribed by Bank Negara Malaysia under its guidelines (or such other rate that may be lower as determined by us at our sole discretion) which will be specified in the monthly statement and will be computed on:

- (i) all transactions inclusive of cash advance, charges, fees, costs and incidental expenses charged to you in connection with the use of the Card commencing from the day they are posted to the Card Account on their respective posting dates;
- (ii) the unpaid balance or balances carried forward from the previous statement or statements, commencing on the respective dates for the computation of finance charges as set out in 19.1 above; and

19.8 An interest-free period of 20 days from the statement due date for new retail transactions is only applicable for Cardholders with no outstanding balance from the previous month's statement.

19.9 If the Specified Minimum Payment amount is unpaid, partly paid or paid after the Payment Due Date, we may in our discretion as we deem fit, without affecting our right to terminate the use of the Card and the Card Account, impose such fees, finance charges and/or late payment charges as we may determine until the Specified Minimum Payment is paid in full.

20 Late Payment Charges

20.1 If the Minimum Monthly Payment is not made by the Payment Due Date, a late payment charge will be levied at 1% of the unpaid balance from retail transactions and Cash Advances, subject to a minimum late payment charge of RM10 and up to a maximum of RM100.

20.2 Late payment charges are only applicable to retail transactions and cash advances. For the avoidance of doubt, Finance Charges will not be imposed on the amount of late payment charges.

 - (ii) undertakes to us that whenever the Business does not pay any amount when due under or in connection with the Card Account, the Guarantor will immediately on demand pay that amount as if it was the sole principal debtor and not merely a surety. Accordingly, the obligations of the Guarantor are valid regardless of whether any other security for the obligations of the Business has not been perfected and it will not be discharged, nor will its liability be affected, by anything which would not discharge it or affect its liability if it were the sole principal debtor;
 - (iii) undertakes to indemnify us immediately on demand against any cost, loss or liability suffered by us if any obligation guaranteed by it is or becomes unenforceable, invalid or illegal. The amount of the cost, loss or liability must be equal to the amount which we would otherwise have been entitled to recover.
- 25.2 This guarantee is a continuing guarantee and will extend to the ultimate balance of the sums payable by the Business under or in connection with the Card Account, regardless of any intermediate payment or discharge in whole or in part.

- (i) the liability of the Guarantor will continue as if the payment, discharge, avoidance or reduction had not occurred; and
- (ii) we will be entitled to recover the value or amount of that security or payment from the Guarantor, as if the payment, discharge, avoidance or reduction had not occurred.

- (i) refrain from applying or enforcing any other moneys, security or rights held or received by us in respect of those amounts, or apply and enforce the same in such manner and order as we see fit (whether against those amounts or otherwise) and the Guarantor shall not be entitled to the benefit of the same; and

- (ii) hold in a suspense account (whether interest bearing or not), any money received from the Guarantor or on account of the Guarantor's liability under this clause.

25.7 Until all amounts which may be or become payable by you under or in connection with the Card Account and the provisions herein have been irrevocably paid in full and unless we otherwise direct, the Guarantor may not exercise any rights which it may have by reason of performance by it of its obligations set out here:

- (i) to be indemnified by an obligor;
- (ii) to claim any contribution from any other guarantor of any of your obligations in connection with the Card Account; and/or
- (iii) to take the benefit (in whole or in part and whether by way of subrogation or otherwise) of any of our rights herein or of any other guarantee or security taken pursuant to, or in connection with, the provisions set out here.
